THE REAL ANARCHISTS.

Father Ducey Says They Are the Rich and Powerful Who Violate Law.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—In a letter published here to-day Rev. Fr. Ducey announces his support of Bryan and Sewall and says: "It strikes me that the rich and powerful who knowingly violate the stat-ute laws of the land and use their wealth to corrupt Legislators, Senate and Congress, are more truly Anarchists and Socialists than the honest workingmen who seek to change existing evils by lawful and constitutional action. I am supported in this view by his excellency, Grover Cleveland, President of these United States, who, in a message to Congress, says:

"Communism is a hateful thing, a menace to peace and organized government. But the communism of combined wealth and capital, the outgrowth of overweening cupidity and selfishness, which insidiously undermines the justice and integrity of the livelity of the communism of combined wealth and capital, the outgrowth of the communism of combined wealth and capital, the outgrowth of the communism of combined wealth and capital, the outgrowth of the communism of combined wealth and capital, the communism of combined wealth and capital, the communism of combined wealth and capital capita and integrity of free institutions, is no less dangerous than the con ressed poverty and tell."

"A few distinguished ecclesiastics of the Catholic Church have seen fit to express their opinion in favor of the Republican view of the situation. This they had a perfect right to do as citizens; but they had no right to throw the weight of their position into the McKinley scales by proclaiming that all their fellow Catholics who differed with them were anarchists.

"It seems to me that these gentlemen have forgotten all about the Pope's encyclical, given at Rome, I think, about May, 1891, which dealt with the existing social conditions. He declares, if my memory serves me right, that the 'spirit of revolutionary change had passed beyond the domain of mere politics and made itself felt in the cognate field of political economy.' He cites as elements of the great conflict the enormous fortunes of individuals and the poverty of the messes, and see that the provent he found and found quickly. erty of the masses, and says that 'a remedy must be found, and found quickly, the bettering of existing social conditions.

"I do not believe in the hue and cry put up against Mr. Bryan that he has rught to set the masses against the classes, or the classes against the mass es. I think he has shown himself capable, and for the future will be regarded LEBANON, Mo., Nov. 2.—Silver Dick without importance save to show that as an alleged Republican exhibit it contained spective of party. He has been in every spective of party. He has been in every part of the district, speaking day and night, several weeks. At the close of the campa he is confident of election and predicts 5,000 najority for Bryan in the district. From all indications Mr. Bland will get two-thirds of the Populist vote of the district, which will give him between 4,000 and 5,0000 plurality over Hubbard, his Republican gold standard opponent. There is evidence of the use of a great deal of money in the district to defeat the old sliver champion and it will be freely used against him on election day by Hanna's agents, but it cannot defeat him. The sliver forces of the district are united and will give Bryan and Bland a big majority.

While there is not the shadow of doubt of Mr. Bland's election, the fight for him will continue in every county in the district until the polis close to-morrow. Over-confidence and a large stay-at-home vote was the cause of Mr. Bland's defeat two years ago. He will not suffer from these causes to-morrow. The sliver voters of the Eighth Congressional District are active and zealous and will return their old sliver leader to Congress by an overwhelming majority.

Fair and pleasant weather, with about normal temperature prevails this morning in all States except as follows: From two to four inches of snow has fallen over South Dakota and snow is still falling, with a probability that it will continue to-day and to-night. In North Dakota about two inches of snow has fallen in the southern central part of the State and the conditions are favorable for a moderate snowfall to-day and to-night in the eastern half of the State.

In Nebraska light snow will probably fall. Light About to Be Thrown on Pearl COVINGTON, Ky., Nov. 2.-Signs are pointing to a confession by Jackson and Walling or at least to a getting at the Walling or at least to a getting at the truth of the murder of Pearl Bryan. For two weeks Jackson and Walling have been kept in separate cells and a bitterness is growing up between them. Yesterday Walling said to Turnkey Maurer:

Maurer asked why he had not so testified, but Walling declined to answer.

day and to-night in the eastern half of the State.

In Nebraska light snow will probably fall in the north half of the State. In Minnesota, Wisconsin and Upper Michigan the weather is cloudy with conditions strongly indicating an unpleasant day Tuesday with light rain or snow. In Lower Michigan, clouds are gathering and the conditions are favorable for warm weather on Tuesday with clouds and occasional showers.

In Indiana. Illinois, Missouri and Iowa the weather is warm and pleasant to-day, but clouds are now gathering and conditions are uncertain for Tuesday, with the weight of evidence in favor of generally fair weather. In Washington and Oregon, rain has fallen every day during the week, making conditions bad for travel in the country, and it is probable that the heavy cloudiness and a moderate fall of rain will continue in both States on Tuesday. In all other States the weather chart this morning gives strong indications of fair and pleasant weather for Tuesday.

Mr. Bryan was introduced as the next President, it depended a great deal on the people of Nebraska furnished the next President, it depended a great deal on the people of Nebraska and how they vote. This brought out a great cheer and assurances that the State was all right for him. He said that this year the people had tried an experiment in choosing a Presidential candidate from west of the Mississippi River and that some of the people of Nebraska seemed to be very much afraid that there would be a President from the West. His speech was to the farmers and found ready response with them.

The train slowed up as it went through Bradshaw and the few hundred people assembled at the depot cheered Mr. Bryan loudly, He stood on the back platform of the special car and bowed in response to the greeting.

AURORA, Neb., Nov. 2.—Mr. Bryan had a big crowd at Aurora, but it included a large percentage of gold badges, which were, however, more conspicuous about the train than in the vicinity of the platform, from which Mr. Bryan spoke. He dwelt in his brief address at this point upon the effects of the gold standard, especially upon the farming interests. The points made were liberally applauded, notwithstanding the presence of the gold badge wearers.

Grand Island was the extreme western point of the day's tour, as it is the most western place visited by Mr. Bryan during the campaign. There was an excellent meeting at this place. The attendance was large and the Bryan sentiment very strong, judging from the vociferous applause and the absence of gold badges.

Mr. Bryan talked for thirty minutes here, dwelling upon the importance of individual effect at the polls to-morrow and saying the result of the election might depend upon the casting of one vote. He again appealed to the agricultural element to declare itself for the double standard as the most certain means of securing the return of prosperity, which is impossible under existing circumstances. The applause at this place was frequent and at times deafening, the volume of sound-being greatly augmented by the tooting of a large thresher which had been rigged up for the occasion.

The return trip was begun at 11:30.

Special to the Post-Diapatch.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 2.—Govern Altgeld has returned, bright, happy and a brown as a coffee grain. He is happy and in good spirits and most confident of success at to-morrow's election. When asked wha he thought of the situation, he replied that I he thought of the situation, he replied that it could not look more roseate for Democratic success, and that success but awaited the closing of the polls. He was firm in the belief that Bryan would be our next President and that he would be the next Governor. He also believed that the next Congress would have a large portion of its twenty-two members from Illinois voting for free silver and Democratic principles. He was also confident that the Fortieth General Assembly of Illinois would elect a free silver successor to Senator John McAuley Palmer. He was also firm in the belief that better times awaited the people and happiness would reign supreme, and he concluded by saying that if the above was not a roseate view of the situation he would like to know what is. roseate view of the situation he would like to know what is.

He replied unless the ballot boxes are stuffed and literally stolen from them, the Democrats would carry the State by 30,000 plurality. He said the advent of Mr. Bryan into Illinois had proven a wooderful success and that the cause of free silver had been given a most decided strengthening. He claimed that a major portion of the next Congress coming from Illinois would be free eilver Congressenen.

The Populists would hold the balance of power in the next Legislature of the State which meant the election of a free silver United States Senator to succeed Palmer. He claimed that Altgeld will lead Bryan in Chicago, and would possibly run a few votes behind the Presidential candidate in the rural districts. He did not believe Palmer and Buckner would receive 7,000 votes in the State, and that most of those would be from "sore head Democrats." MEXIA, Tex., Nov. 2.-There can be n foubt that Mark Hanna has been indicted by the Dallas County Grand Jury for an alleged attempt to buy the electoral vote of Texas for McKinley.

The information upon which action i based is certain telegraphic correspondence between Hanna and his Texas agents. While not officially announced, yet it is known that nine members voted for and three against. The ninth man, being a political sympathizer with Hanna, refused to vote for indictment until assured that the bill would not be returned until after the election. A. M. KENNEDY,

Secretary State Democratic Executive Com mittee.

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 2-There is not particle of doubt about the finding of an indictment against Mark Hanna, as telegraphed to the Post-Dispatch Saturday night. After effecting a compromise with the juror who was opposed to returning the indictment into court until after election, thereby securing his vote for indictment, the Grand Jury adjourned until Thursday.

The basis of the indictment is a telegram from Hanna to John Huston at Texas Republican Headquarters in Dallas between Oct. 1 and Oct. 4 offering $40,000 to Populis leaders to secure the Populist vote of Texas for McKinley. Huston has not been indicted for the reason that up to date no dispatches bearing his signature have been obtained by the Grand-Jury from the Western Union Telegraph Company. It is known however, that a telegram did go to Hanna, bearing the signature of John Grant, National Republican Committeeman of Texas, saying:

"Think can make deal. Forty thousan refused. Sixty thousand demanded." It is also known that Gould and Rockefeller of New York, by their representatives, in telegrams offered to "contribute" $40,000 if the Populist leaders indorsed the McKinley electors, and $100,000 additional if Mc-Kinley electors secured the vote of Texas. It is said that other indictments are sure to follow when the Grand-Jury reconvenes.

You can see for yourself that there is nothing on the list to indicate whether the person is black or white, Republican or Democrat. The negroes were not picked out especially and no effort was made to intimidate any one, "The statement that the negroes were

Col. Ed Butler is said to be Hanna's manager. He has control of the appointing of judges and clerks in the First, Seventeenth and Nineteenth Wards because they are named by Ike Conran and Tim Conway, two of his political tools and his own son, John, the Central Committeeman of the Nineteenth Ward, who is a clerk in broker Jim Campbell's office.

Intimation of the contemplated treachery reached the Democratic State Committee and steps were taken to head off the nefarious work.

Chairman Cook said Monday: "If Hanna's tools try to use his boodle inside the polling places there will be an increase in the population at Jefferson City. There are judges and clerks who cannot be bought and there may be some who would sell out. We had only one way to protect ourselves. We are allowed a challenger all day in the polling place, and when the count begins we are entitled to two watchers, one to watch the calling judge and one to watch the tally sheets. "The candidates have selected their own watchers and challengers in the three wards under suspicton.

"John B. O'Meara's attitude aroused the distrust that put us on the right track. We think that the matter was detected in time. The national, State and city organizetions are now co-operating harmoniously to defeat fraud and insure an honest count."

"Is Mr. O'Meara working now?"
"He says he is," was Mr. Cook's reply.

"He says he is," was Mr. Cook's reply.

Maj. Harvey Salmon, who was standing by them took a whirl at Mr. O'Meara. "His explanation in Saturday's Post-Dispatch was not correct." said Maj. Salmon. "I did not write him at Jefferson City. I told him yesterday in the presence of Gov. Stone and a number of prominent gentlemen that as a high official of the party he should have volunteered his services and not waited for an invitation. A man with the interests of his party at heart should have asked to serve. Just say to Mr. O'Meara for me that I am too busy working for the Democratic ticket to bandy words with him about his party fidelity."

Gov. Stone dropped in while the discussion of contemplated fraud was going on.
"If Mark Hanna's money is used for bribes in Missouri he will find our grand-juries as active and fearless as those in Texas. The election official who will sell himself is sure to go to the penitentiary. I will have an honest election and a fair count in this State, cost what it may." The Governor was in buoyaant mood over the outlook for Democratic success. He is certain that Missouri will do herself proud to-morrow. to-morrow.

"I have spent two weeks in the State of Illinois and I know the country will roll up a big majority for Bryan. I have not been in Cook County, but I have the assurances of Gov. Altgeld and Mr. Hinrichsen that Chicago will not turn the State over to McKnley."

to McKnley."

Election Commissioner Higgins had nothing to say Monday beyond his statement published Sunday.

Thave no answer to make to the editorial in yesterday's Post-Dispatch. I will do my duty, and if I fail I know Gov. Stone will do his."

Election Commissioner Harris said: "There is nothing to reply to this charge or this story. It is without a particle of foundation."

Shortly after noon a Post-Dispatch reporter who was searching for Col. Ed Butler found that worthy with Jim Campbell and John Scullin in the latter's private office. They had their heads together and were in close confab, probably hatching some Wall street scheme for to-morrow's election, but they were mean enough to refuse to tell the Post-Dispatch about it.

Chairman Theodore D. Kalbfell holds to his claim of 25,000 as the minimum majority for McKinley in the city, and says it may go as high as 40,000. He claims the election of every man on the city ticket, not even excepting the malodorous Zachritz. He also claims that Lewis will get a majority sufficiently large to overcome the lead Stephens will bring to the city.

Chairman Hugh J. Brady takes an entirely different view of the situation. He said: Saturday night's demonstration leaves no room for doubt that the workingmen are with Bryan in this contest. In my judgment there are at least 60,000 Democrats waiting to vote our ticket, and this many will give Bryan a majority, as there will not, in my opinion, be 120,000 votes polled. The new registration is largely Democratic, and the results will surprise some of these gentlemen who are making such enormous claims.

"My conclusion that the Democrats have the best of the registration is reached in this way. The Republicans always kept up a strong organization and registered every vote they could claim as theirs. The Democrats when in the majority were not so particular and did not bestir chemselves registering their men. But they did work this time and did get out a full registration. I have been all over the city and have talked with the leaders in every ward. They assure my that the outlook for a majority in the city is exceedingly encouraging.

"Those Democrats who have gone over on the money question and who are trying to oppose us with their claims overlook the fact that there are thousands of Republicans in the city was are opposed to the single gold standard and will vote with us Tuesday.

single gold standard and will vote with us Tuesday.

"This is particularly true of the young men, who are about to cast their first votes. Outside the enthusiasm for Bryan we have such excellent State and city tickets that we are bound to get some Republican and Independent votes. There never was in the history of local political conventions a stronger city ticket placed in the field and I look for its election."

From the southern wards come reports that a very considerable portion of the young men who registered for the first time are for Bryan. If this information is correct then 10,000 Republican majority claimed below Chouteau avenue will not materialize.

GOV. STONE ON ELECTION' FRAUDS.

Determined to Prosecute Violators of BILLY ZACHRITZ RELEASES A NE

Governor Stone was asked on what infor-mation he based the reward offered by him to-day for the arrest and conviction of those guilty of violating the election laws. He

Suffice it to say, that information, very def-inite in character and from reliable sources, has been conveyed to me of a purpose on the tensive scale in the large cities of the State I will put agencies at work to prevent the consummation of these schemes if possible Estimates of the widest range are made. The Republicans claim it for McKinley by majorities ranging from 20,000 to 50,000, but they are not making any bets that these figures will be sustained by the official count.

"I am sure no intimidation of any voter was attempted. Since the publication referred to by you I have made some inquiry into the matter, and have been told that the Election Commissioners, or some of them, had requested that the police officers while on their beats yesterday and to-day would as far as they could do so ascertain whether a number of voters, white as well as black, actually resided at the points from which they were registered, and also to investigate as to certain other rumors that had been brought to the attention of the Commissioners.

as to certain other rumors that had been brought to the attention of the Commissioners.

"I see nothing in this that any one can complain of. It is the duty of the police to ferret out crime, whether committed or contemplated. It is as much their duty to prevent violations of law as to arrest those who have already violated it. If nothing wrong is found on investigation by the police then no harm is done. If, on the other hand, fraudulent schemes can be prevented good is done.

"I want to say this, that I shall use my utmost endeavors and exert all the powers with which I am clothed to punish criminals. Others may be terrorized or intimidated, but so far as I am concerned I mean to see to it that the laws are vindicated.
"I am informed that quite a large number of men came to the city this morning over the Missouri Pacific and others over the 'Frisco, and that a very prominent man of this city met them at the depot and took charge of them. These people are spotted. If they attempt to violate the law here, not only the men who are imported but the man who imported them may find it is best to obey the law."

Coroner Walter J. Walt was absent from his office Saturday afternoon and did not reach his home until late Sunday morning. During that time friends and relatives of the late Jacob C. Ewald, ex-President of the Merchants' Exchange, whose sudden death occurred during Saturday's parade, were searching the city for the Coroner. They desired permission to remove the body of Mr. Ewald from the Morgue, whither it had been taken directly after the tragedy, in order to show the dead proper respect.

On account of Dr. Wait's unexplained absence from his office and home, the relations were unable to secure possession of their dead until after, 7 o'clock Sunday year.

Workingmen's Opportunity.

Workingmen's Opportunity.

Every workingman is in favor of increasing the demand for labor, because a demand for mechanics, skilled and unskilled, means better wages and the employment of men who are now idle. If Sedalia secures the capital, millions of dollars will be expended on the new State buildings to be erected there and on numerous public and private improvements in that city.

Vote "Yes" on the capital removal amendment, the first one on the ticket, and scratch out the word "No." Don't fail to do this because now is the workingman's opportunity. Vote for your own best interest and that of your fellow workingmen, remembering this, that if you vote against Sedalia you do not give a single day's labor to any man in Missouri.—Adv.

"I would recommend. Your Honor," he said, "that George Loving, charged with felonious assault, be released on his own recognizance." There was nothing for Judge Edmunds to do under the circumstances but to direct the clerk to fill out a recognizance bond. Loving wis brought into court from the jail and he put his mark on the document, for he could not write his name.

He flaunted a yellow ribbon and gave a yell for McKinley as he left the Four Courts.

Judge Edmunds, to make his record clear in the transaction, wrote at the bottom of the bond, "Recommended by the Circuit Attorney in open court."

Loving's crime was beating his wife's face into a putp and breaking her arm with. The law is the court of the court of the court of the court and the putp is the first offenders.

The city is dusting with preparations for to-morrow night. Wires are being strung everywhere and never before have there been such preparations in Canton for the receipt of election news.

Canton clubs have arranged for a parade to-night as a closing for the campaign. The affair is to be a street demonstration without speaking. Meetings are being held in many of the rural districts to-day, most of them having parades for the feature.

The Canton troop of horsemen who have escorted all the visiting delegations to the McKinley house were photographed in a group with Maj. McKinley this morning, and a number of such groups are being arranged. All of the organizations which have participated in the campaign are anxious for a memento of the season's work, and the Major very kindly consents to stand in the groups with them.

U. S. COURT OF APPEALS.

Four Important Decisions Handed Down in Western Cases.

Four opinions were filed in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals Monday. In the suit brought by Sallie Greenthal vs. the Iron Mountain Railway Co. and the ullman Palace Car Co., the judgment of the Arkansas Federal Court was affirmed.
The suits of Francis G. King vs. the County Commissioners of Grand County of Colorado and of John W. Stryker vs. the same, were to compel the levy of a tax to pay county warrants. In both cases the writs were dismissed by the Colorado Federal Court and the Court of Appeals sustains the judgment. writs were dismissed by the Colorado Federal Court and the Court of Appeals sustains the judgment.

In the Colorado district Alexander Wilson and others sued Ellen R. Seymour and William G. Pell to restrain the foreclosure of a mortgage on certain mining property, the "Slide and Spur Gold Mines," in Boulder County. The complainants claimed a lien on the property because of fraudulent representations alleged to have been made by the defendants in negotiations for the sale of the property. The Colorado Court dismissed the bill and the Court of Appeals says that this was right.

Arbitrary Action of the Mayor of Hannibal.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Nov. 2.—The city is crowded with country people to-day and excitement is at fever heat. The Democrats would take place to-night and thousands from the surrounding country have come in to participate, but Mayor McDonald refuses to grant them the privilege of parading and the parade is declared off. A parade took place this afternoon, but it was nothing to be compared with the parade that was intended for to-night. The Mayor is being severely censured for his arbitrary action, but he stands unmoved. The Republicans declared their proposed parade off early this morning, as the Mayor issued a proclamation requesting no parades to be held. The Democrats will resent his action at the polls to-morning.

The Democratic nominees for Circuit for the righteous Republicans to file their fudge are so vastly superior in all reprotest against Filley corruption and spects to those on the Republican ticket that they can hardly fail of election by a large majority. Judges Harvey, Edmunds and Dillon, the Democratic nominees for the long term, are so immeasurably superior to Zachritz, Talty and Spencer, on the Republican ticket, that the only question remaining to be settled is as to the majority they will have.

But the Democratic nominees for the short term are equally meritorious and equally deserving of election. A FRAUD AND A SWINDLER.

The managers of the Post-Dispatch have received several complaints recently from parties in Texas in regard to money paid one Mr. J. S. this connection, it is gratifying to learn that much has been accomplished for the good of the profession, under the pending Democratic administration, and the safety of the people to whom they minister. But there remains much to be done, in sympa-thy with which every physician worthy of the name and every citizen of Missouri, is fully in accord. It is comforting, there-fore, for all who have watched the labors and conduct of the profession to become and conduct of the profession to become more learned and experienced, for all the people who have suffered the pangs of illness, for the mothers and fathers who have grieved at the hedside for all who our country.

Sherman or Morgan.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer. The warmth of the Presidential campaign this year has brought the people to a better understanding of the crime of 1873 than they had before. Mr. Sherman has confessed himself a party to a sneaking el the demonstization through in 1873. He knew where the hidden poison in the mint bill was, and was one of only two or three men who did know. He could not have been unaware of the startling consequences of the legislation. He told nobody, but embraced every opportunity to hurry the measure through the Senate. It is a wonder that his nervousness on the subject did not arouse somebody's suspicions; but John Sherman was looked upon as an honest man. His record since then has been badly riddled. Still, Major McKinley is not a man of marked principle or conviction, and unless the bond syndicates require him to appoint J. Pierpont Morgan to the head of the Treasury Department, he is likely to appoint the besmirched Sherman to the position in the awful event of his election on Tuesday next.

Hagan was well patronized yesterday afternoon and last night, and the pathos and humor of Du Maurier's tale of life and leve in the Latin quarter were highly appreclated. It would hardly be fair to contrast the work of the various members of the cast with that of their predecessors in the parts. They are imitations, and like most imitations their variations from the originals are not pleasing. The "make ups" are excellent, and so are the dialects.
Charles Kent as Svengali follows the Lackaye original closely. Eleanor Barry is as satisfactory a Trilby as has been seen here.
The Zou-Zou of George H. Trader is defective in small particulars. The Gecko of Mr. Morrison is familiar to the St. Louis public, as he had the part last year. Herbert Carr and Charles Canfield are acceptable as Taffy and The Laird.

Vernona Jarbeau made her local yaudeable as Taffy and The Laird.

Vernona Jarbeau made her local vaude-ville debut at Hopkins' Grand Opera-house yesterday in a round of character impersonations. One of Jarbeau's most entertaining imitations is that of Aibert Chevaller, the English coster singer. She sings "The Little Ripper" in coster attire. Terry and Elmer, in their eccentric dancing sketch, and Miss Edith Kingsley, the St. Louis girl who is now an established vaudeville favorite, scored successes. Miss Kingsley, renders a number of vocal selections, into which she throws her charming personality. Her song, "Down on the Ohlo," is one of the hits of the season. Miss Kingsley's rendition of negro melodies in "rag time," playing her own accompaniment upon the plano, is enjoyable. The stock company is giving a spirited interpretation of Chanfrau's story of life in the Middle West in the early seventies, "Kit, the Arkansaw Traveler." Many of the scenes were laid in this city and vicinity. The scenery provided for the play is worthy of praise. The big continuous show will run until long past middlight to-morrow night.

It would be most surprising, indeed, if their sentiments should be otherwise, in the face of the prevailing circumstances, and of what they have endured in the past and are suffering at the present. Many of the workingmen, myself among the number, have searched many weary weeks and months for employment, asking only enough to keep ourselves and those dependent upon us alive, but we have been unfortunate at every turn, returning from the weary search heartsick and dis-

Three weeks ago the Post-Dispatch stated positively that John Scullin had organized a capitalists with a capital of $200,000 to pur

He had a proposition from Mexico by which he could get hold of that amount of bar silver at 51 cents. He showed his capitalistic friends that an investment in silver bullion would be a pretty good form of insurance against Bryan's election. They thought so, too. He was not long in raising the $200,000.

Mr. Scullin and other members of the pool vigorously denied that they thought Mr. Bryan's chances of election good enough to form the basis of a business investment.

A reporter called on Mr. Boyd, who said that the silver had been sold to St. Louis parties through a local broker, and was stored with the Mississippi Valley Trust Co. by the purchasers.

Mr. Boyd said he would gladly tell all about the sale of the builion, if the purchasers would consent, and he asked the reporter to wait a few minutes until he could send to the broker who negotiated the purchase. Mr. Boyd wrote a note and sent out by his office boy. The boy returned in about eight minutes and said: "Mr. Knight says it's absolutely private."

Scrofula

Lurks in the blood of almost everyone, and it is in many cases inherited. Its severest form is that of running sores on the arms, limbs or feet. Bunches on the glands of the neck, pimples, cancerous growths, swollen foints, are other symptoms. Hood's Sarsa-parilla thoroughly eradicates the humor from the blood and cures Scrofula, Salt

Bolls, Pimples, Eruptions.

"For about two years I have been troub-led with pimples on my face and scrofula swellings. I went to a doctor but he did not help me, and I began taking Hood's Sarsa-parilla. Before I had finished the second bottle I was cured, and I have not been troubled with acrofula since. "FRANK BEECHNOR,

South Side Coursing.

The coursing at South Side Park yesterday afternoon attracted a large crowd. The events were well handled and the contesting hounds were evenly matched. The jacks were a lively, artful lot, and gave the dogs a hot run in every instance. Pete Boehm's Belle won the stake after a stern chase from Dody. Val Goessling gave good satisfaction as judge; and Ben O'Keefe sustained his good reputation as slipper.

THE WEST WILL CONTROL.

The Districts Which Will Settle the Presidential Contest Handicapped by Time.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.-The public must be prepared for a later service on to-morrow's prepared for a later sorvice on to-morrow's election than usual. It will be borne in mind that hitherto in presidential elections New York has been a pivotal State, and that the polls closed there at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the telegraph facilities were of the highest order and the difference in time between that city and the West enabled the Associated Press to practically determine the result of the election before midnight. This year interest will center chiefly in States west of the Alleghanies, and particularly in States west of the Alleghanies, and particularly in States west of the Alleghanies, and mine the result of the election before midnight. This year interest will center chiefly in States west of the Alleghanies, and particularly in States west of the Mississippi. Much of the advantage of time is lost. As a rule the polls will close at a later hour, and the telegraphic facilities are comparatively limited. In the State of Illinois there is a provision for amending the State Constitution and in Chicago another for the issue of local bonds, both of which under the law must be counted first, and this will necessarily involve some delay. It is needless to say that every effort will be made to prosecute the work as rapidly as possible, but the limitations above indicated exist, and it is as well that they should be understood.

The following table shows the hours (local time) for opening and closing the polls in the various States:

SAFE EASTERN STATES.

Democrats Sure of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2—Unterrified by the "claim all" policy of the Republicans, the "claim all" policy of the Republicans, the Democrats are confident that New York, New Jersey and Connecticut will go for Bryan and Sewall. In this city Tammany Hall, under the direction of Leader Sheehan, has made an aggressive and telling campaign, which has set the popular lide to ward Mr. Bryan. Mr. Sheehan said:

"We are confident that New York City will give Bryan at least 40,000 plurality. I know that the Republicans claim the city by 75,000 and the State by 300,000, but that does not affect my judgment of the situation in the least. Our advices are based on polis made by men who mingle with the people, and 40,000 is a conservative estimate of Bryan's probable plurality in this city.

polls made by men who mingle with the people, and 40,000 is a conservative estimate of Bryan's probable plurality in this city. The regular Tammany vote and the labor vote will do the work."

Chairman Danforth, before leaving for home, said that in his judgment the Democratic ticket would be elected from top to bottom in this State. "The unprecedented enthusiasm and earnestness of the masses of the people." Mr. Danforth said, "bear eloquent testimony as to the favorable chances for victory. Thousands of Republicans have come over to us in the interior counties, and the party has gained in this city in like manner from the Tanks of labor and the Republican party."

The Democratic leaders in New Jersey are confident that that State will remain in the Democratic column. Col. Price, the State Chairman, whrea that New Jersey will give Bryan about $,000 plurality, and that four of the eight Congressmen will be Democrats.

In Connecticut, a poll of the State shows.

that four of the eight Congression be Democrats.

In Connecticut, a pell of the State shows an apparent plurality for McKinley of from 5,000 to 5,000, but Chairman Troup of the Democratic State Committee writes that the mill hands have been unusually reticent and that their votes may turn the tide. These men would not express themselves to the canvassers and they have been classed as McKinley men.

He said to an Associated Press reporter: "The use of my name was unauthorized. Deeds to the two farms have been deposited in a local bank.

The faculty has advised them to return home on election day, but many are resolved to cast their ballots at Vermillion and a clash at the polls is not unlikely.

LOST HIS IDENTITY.

Strange Case of a Man Who Has Forgotten His Name and Per-

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.-In a letter to mem bers of the clergy in the East, Rev. George H. Davis, rector of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church in Mankato, Minn., tells H. Davis, rector of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church in Mankato, Minn., tells of the strange case of a man who has so completely lost all sense of his own identity as to make it wholly impossible for him to give his name, birthplace or other facts concerning his personal history. Mr. Davis has written the letter in the hope that the mystery may be unraveled. Mr. Davis account of the incident is as follows:

"On October 15 a well-dressed, gentlemanly appearing man called upon me, announced himself as a churchman and asked to be introduced to some physician with whom he might confer as to his mental condition. He said he had lost all knowledge as to his personal identity, of which fact he had become censcious within a few days. The stranger was taken to one of the leading physicians and after careful examination placed in the city hospital, where he still remains.

"He thinks he has gone from place to place for a considerable time, but cannot tell how long. Nothing about him gives any clue to his identity. Some of his linen is marked J. H. H. and he registered at a hotel as 'J. Harrison, St. Paul,' but he thinks that is neither his name nor his home.

"He is an Englishman by birth, about 50 years old, well educated, and thinks he has traveled extensively in this country and abroad. He also 'thinks he at some time acted as a lay reader."

Claimed That Bryan Will Have a Ma-

history of the State. The Republican State Committee, after a careful canvass in every county of the State, place the minimum majority for McKinley at 4,500. The latest estimates given out by the Populist State Committee puts the majority for Bryan electors at 1,500.

At the State election held last June, the Democrats and Populists both had tickets in the field, and their combined vote on Supreme Judge exceeded the Republicans' by 4,500. The National Democrats claim they will cast at least 4,000 votes in the State. At the presidential election four years ago the Democrats and Populists tused on one elector, but his total vote was 4,000 short of the combined vote of the Democrats and Populists on the other three electors, who were voted for separately.

The exports to Great Britain were over $46,000,000, an increase of $5,000,000, while to the United States the exports decreased from $41,000,000 to $25,000,000 in round figures. There is a slight increase in Australian trade, and also with Newfoundland, but the exports to 'est Indies dropped from $3,000,000 to $2,000,000. The imports from $3,000,000 to $2,000,000. It Gives Its Motives for Making DR. BOYD SPEAKS PLAINLY Treaty Disclosures. HAMBURG, Nov. 2.—The Hamburger

Nachrichten, the organ of Prince Bismarck, has another article on the Russo-German treaty, the announcement of which caused a tremendous sensation. The latest article says:

"Among the motives of our expose of the Russo-German relations, all of which was do not feel called upon to disclose, is the continual falsification of historical facts by the Clerical and Liberal and even the semi-official press, with the dishonest purpose of making the Government of William I. and of Bismarck responsible for all present evils, especially the rupture of the former favorable relations with Russia—a rupture which certainly does not improve Germany's position in Europe. Therefore, we publish the fact that the rupture was brought about during the administration of Gen. Von Caprivi through his unqualified refusal of Russia's request for the continuance of the entente."

they are surely doomed to defeat.

Another man run through by the machine is in the same boat. He is Eggers, candidate for Circuit Attorney.

He is, so incompetent in comparison with Lee Meriwether that only the rankest of partisans and the men who expect to profit by his pliancy in office can stomach him.

The fact that the Republican politicians have given up all hope of electing their judicial ticket and Eggers is shown by their anxiety to trade votes for these men for Lewis, their candidate for Governor. They see that no amount of urging will hold the decent Republicans in kine and they hope to get them to persuade Democrats to forsake Stephens with a view to getting an honest judiciary.

This is practically wasting a Stephens vote, for the Republicans would not vote for their Circuit Judges anyway. It is merely a politicians' plan to take advantage of a defection that has alarmed them and gore beyond their control. TO CROWN BERNHARDT QUEEN. Festival in Her Honor Will Be Given

Count Okuma Outlines the Work That Awaits It.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The World this morning publishes special correspondence from Tokto, Japan, to the effect that Count Okuma Shingemobo has entered upon his duties as Minister of Foreign Affairs. With respect to Eastern ocountries, he said it was desirable to infuse greater energy into the councils of the Emplies than has latterly been exhibited. He said it was the part of the new ministry to promote the progress of Corea, to win the confidence of China and to extend the political liberties of the people of Japan.

WAIT'S RECORD

HE IS MIXED UP IN THE NOTORI- POST-DISDATCH

An Ohio Man Shoots Three Persons, OPPOSED LABOR INTERESTS.

His Name on the Ticket Is Admitted Be a Weakening Influence.

While the conviction grows that the Republican Judicial ticket in St. Louis will ertainly be defeated at Tuesday's election certainly be defeated at Tuesday's election. Filley's henchmen fear also the weakening influence exerted by the presence of Dr. Walter J. Walt's name upon the ticket.

Ex-member of the St. Louis School Board and the avowed enemy of organized lobor, Dr. Wait is a candidate on the Republican ticket for a second term as Coroner. At the last election Wait was defeated by Dr. R. C. Capt. Slattery's Insurance Suit Will Be Atkinson, Democrat, but succeeded in un-seating Atkinson after a three weeks' contest in the Circuit Courts.

While Dr. Wait is no longer a member while Dr. Walt is no longer a list a paid of the St. Louis School Board, but is a paid public official, he takes deep interest in School Board affairs.

This interest is chiefly shown by his particular of the School Board.

This interest is chiefly shown by his participation in conferences with School Board Directors Cudmore and Koenig at Mollencott's salcon, the headquarters of the School Board ring, or dining with School Directors and contractors' agents at Faust's.

To the advantage of having been a member of the St. Louis School Board is added Dr. Wait's record on the labor question. This developed a few days ago, when it became known that there is a judgment against Wait in Judge Russell'e division of the Circuit Court for labor performed for him, but not paid for.

W. H. Stevens was the plaintiff, and he still waits for his money, although the judgment was secured last April, because Wait says he does not have to pay it and has nothing for the Sheriff to levy on.

During the progress of the trial, it is stated, Wait made statements reflecting upon the honesty and integrity of laboring men in general and declared he thought labor entirely too well paid in most cases.

With the labor vote arrayed against Dr. Wait, and the votes of citizens who have watched the transactions of the St. Louis School Board, with which Wait has been more or less identified, he stands very little chance of election. In addition his opponent Dr. Daniel Hochdoerfer, on the Democratic ticket, is especially strong in the South End Republican wards.

"A docket has been set for to-day," replied the Circuit Attorney. "Mr. Carr will tell you so."
Circuit Clerk Carr stated that four cases had been placed on the Grand-jury docket for the day.

"I am compelled, gentlemen," said Judge Edmunds, addressing the Grand-jury, "to tell you that I cannot excuse you to-day. You will report to me from time to time if you require advice or instructions."

Mr. Zachritz thereupon said with a considerable show of feeling:

"I will personally take charge of the Grand-jury and will give it whatever legal advice it may require."

The Grand-jury then retired to begin its duties. It is composed as follows:
Charles R. Gregory, foreman, first vice-president of Simon-Gregory Dry Goods Co. F. W. Guerin, photographer.

Meyer Bauman, president of the I. Bauman Jewelry Co.

Samuel G. Kennedy, insurant agent.

Francis J. Lyons, builder.

Both Circuit Attorney Zachritz and Clerk or that their anxiety to have the jury proceed to work at once was based on any intention to attempt to make campaign material.

The story is made up, as usual, out of whole cloth in an endeavor to counteract the absolute knowledge among the people that men with money have been coercing their employes to vote for the gold standard. An examination of the police station shows that no more colored people have been arrested during the last week than during half the weeks of the year.

There is a large law breaking element among the negroes. The Second District Police Court's docket is taken up the year round almost exclusively with negro cases, as any court official or reporter who has can wassed that assignment can testify.

But help was not far distant.
Patroiman Mahor of the Fifth District Police heard McSweeney's cries and was hurrying to the scene. He ran up and caught both women by the arms.
The woman in the blcycle suit made plucky resistance and succeeded in escaping. The highwaymaid with the de Joinville tie was locked up. She gave her name as Ada Michell.

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson issued a warrant charging her with attempted highway robbery.

CASTING A BALLOT IS A VERY SIMPLE THING.

AND THE VOTE IS SECRET.

Scratch All Tickets But One and Mark Your Changes Under the Proper Headings.

The voter who desires to cast a good ballot at Tuesday's election has but a few simple rules to bear in mind.

The first thing he must do is to go to the polling place where he registered, and upon entering announce his name and address in an audible and distinct maner to the judges seated either side of the ballot box. One judge will have a register marked 'Original' and the other one marked "Duplicate." They will immediately turn to the books and find the registry of that particular voter. If the name appears on the book in proper form one of the judges will take a folded ballot and write his initials upon the back of it with a pen or an in delible pencil. He will then hand it to the other judge, who will write his initials upon it in the same manner and pass it to the other judge, who will write his initials upon it in the same manner and pass it to the voter.

The voter then retires to one of the booths a few steps away and prepares his ballot. Unfolding it he will find seven tickets or columns printed on one large sheet. He must then proceed to scratch out all but one of these columns by drawing perpendicular lines through them from top to bottom. Having reduced his ballot in this manner to one ticket he proceeds to scratch out the names of those candidates he does not wish to vote for and write upon the line under the scratched name the name of the candidate he does wish to vote for. Having arranged his vote in one column with all other columns scratched out the voter folds as it was when he received it so that the initials of the two judges appear on the back of it as before.

He then returns to the table and hands the ballot to the judge he received it from and waits to see that it is properly deposited in the box.

Upon receiving the prepared ballot the judge will call out the name and address of the voter in a loud, distinct voice, and one of the clerks will enter it upon a poll book and call the number of the vote. If it is the first ballot cast he will call out "twenty," it the twentieth, he will call out "twenty," and so on. The judges will then write the voting number upon the back of the ballot under their initials, and deposit in the box, which must always be kept in plain view.

As the ballot is put into the box the judges will mark against the name of the voter in a loud, distinct voice, and one of the clerks will enter it upon a poll book and call the number of the vote. If it is the first ballot cast he will call out "twenty," it the twentieth, he will call out "twenty," and so on. The judges will then write the voting number upon the back of the ballot under their initials, and deposit in the box, which must always be kept in plain view.

As the ballot is put into the box, the judges will mark against the name the voter the word "voted" on "V" to ine ate that that particular elector has voted.

a single head, with all the other parts of the ballot scratched. It will be utterly impossible for any judge, clerk, challenger or watcher to learn how any particular individual votes, and none of the election officers have authority to ask man what his politics are.

The only case in which it can be learned how a man votes is when he declares he is unable to read and write. Then the judge is empowered to prepare a ballot according to the elector's dictation. Then it must be done openly in the polling place so that all entitled to do so may see that it is prepared according to the wishes of that particular voter. Aside from this single instance, where the ballot is prepared openly, it is impossible for any one to learn how any elector votes.

The ballot is returned to the judges tightly folded and there will be watchers from both parties on hand to see that it goes into the ballot box without being opened or tampered with.

No comparison of the numbers on the

No comparison of the numbers on the ballots and those in the clerks' list is possi-ble, because in counting the ballots the judges and clerks cannot look at the back of any ballot.

A Personal Statement.

A Personal Statement.

From the St. Louis Republic of Nov. 2.

To the Editor of the Republic:
Oct. 31, 1896.—At the close of this campaign we ask leave to briefly summarize some of the facts connected with the capital removal question.

1. None of the pamphlets sent out in the interest of Jefferson City are signed by any person, but every document issued by the people of Sedalia ends with a responsi-

the people of Sedalia ends with a responsible signature,
2. On Oct. 18, in room 616 of the Planters' Glotel in St. Louis, Gov. Stone stated that the Sedalia bonds accepted by him and which he approved by his public proclamation on April 30, 1895, fully protected the State. The alleged statement that the Governor said these bonds were worthless is false.

false.
3. Gov. Stone also said that the capital could not be removed until new buildings were built free of cost to the State and accepted by State Commissioners, at Sedalia, and he pronounced the bond law constitutional under his oath of office when he elemed it.

tutional under his oath of office when he signed it.

4. The Supreme Court of Missouri (33 S. W. Rep., p. 1134), has said that the adoption of the capital removal amendment will not remove the capital, but will, only provide a means by which it would be removed on the performance in advance of certain things.

6. The statement that a Chicago syndicate is interested in Sedalia or the capital removal amendment we pronounce absolutely false and call attention to the fact that no living person up to date has dared to make this charge over his signature. We state further that the Board of Trade of Sedalia owns an interest in certain lands which will be devoted to the purpose of erecting new State buildings if the capital removal amendment carries, and of which the State will get the benefit.

7. We point out to every intelligent voter in the State section 8 of articles 10 of the State Constitution. Let each voter look at it personally and he will see that whether the capital is moved or mot it is absolutely impossible to increase taxation a single cent in Missouri above the present rate.

8. Capital removal would not injure Jefferson City. New institutions would be located in the four old State buildings which would be of more value than having which would be of more value than having

"I CANNOT SING THE OLD SONGS I SANG LONG YEARS AGO."

This song is supposed to have been written and sung by Messrs. Carlisle, Cleveland, Palmer and McKinley. At a recent meeting where these honorable gentlemen sang this song with great success, an encore was demanded and Mr. William J. Bryan, who happened to be in the audience, noticing that the distinguished gentlemen were slow to respond, grasped the opportunity to sing another verse, which for its fitness and spontaniety, was received with a storm of applause which so discomfited the honorable quartet that they retired without caregony. orable quartet that they retired without ceremony.

Prof. Whitney played the piano accompaniment.

CARLISLE:

I cannot sing the old songs I sang long years ago, My heart was ever true then; it is not now, I know.

Ip by-gone days I always said and did what seemed aright, But since I met Old Shylock, my deeds are done at night,
And now the Wall Street Money Kings say, "John, you're out of sight, CLEVELAND:

I cannot sing the old songs I sang long years ago,
My heart and voice have changed since I sold out to the foe;
A poor man then, I could not know and feel a sympathy
For trusts and combines, but now they flourish under me,
And now I've lost all interest in poor humanity,

I cannot sing the old songs I sang long years ago,
Oncoming years have changed me, so many times, you know.
In fact, I've changed so often I scarce know where I'm at.
But this I know most surely, I'm frying out the fat
For Boss Mark and McKinley—just please remember that.

I cannot sing the old songs I sang long years ago. I'd like to if permitted, but Hanna says "No, no!"
Besides, my friends the bankers say, "No matter how you feel, We'll put you in the White House, we know you'll let us steal; And as for tolling millions, their doom we soon will seal"

ENCORE.

I love to sing the old songs they sang long years ago; I'll help the tolling millions to blot out every woe.

A double standard's what I'd have and coin our silver free. The masses than would prosper, and better times we'd see.

I love to sing their old songs, they're good enough for me.

Late advices show the wheat thade in Russia has not been very fluctuating; fine weather permits free threshing, but high freights impede business for export. Reports from various parts of the Empire state the Hessian fly is ravaging the autumn sown seed; warm weather had favored the development of this parasite. The absence of rain prevented resowing of the fields destroyed, so that farmers will have to wait for spring.—Beerbohm.

Last week's Black Sea shipments to Europe were reported as 4,936,000 bu, a decrease of 720,000 bu from the week before. The clearances from Danubian ports last week of 1,456,000 bu were 752,000 bu smaller than week before and 48,000 bu less than corresponding week last year, but Russian exports must have increased to some extent. The total amount of wheat set afloat for Europe last week is estimated as over 8,000,000 bu.

The Merchants' and the Ootton Exchanges will be closed to-morrow, which as a national election is a light holiday. All the markets of this country will-be closed on that day. Consequently no commercial news will be published in Tuesday's Post-Dispatch.

The Department of Agriculture estimates the potato crop of this country as 250,000,000 bu, the second largest on record. The yield of 1895 was 279,000,000 bu.

Cable advices of Oct. 22 from Buenos Ayres state that reports from the crop indicate the wheat prospects are excellent.

A Reuter cable from South Australia alleges the wheat crop is a total failure, and many farmers are in a destitute condition.

This morning's cables report fields in France, cold and wet in England and cold and clear in Germany.

New Orleans cleared yesterday for Livérpool 60,000 bu corn.

GAVE MORPHINE TO THE BABY

THE DOSE WAS BIG ENOUGH TO KILL A GROWN PERSON.

THE BABY IS A CORPSE.

Mrs. Walsmith Gave the Deadly Drug to Mrs. Smith's Child to Cure a Cold.

Because Mrs. Mary Walsmith of 1443 North Sixteenth street had once administered morphine to her sister, under a physician's prescription, she thought she was qualified to administer it by guess to the 4-year-old daughter of Mrs. Frances Smith of 813 North Fifteenth street.

Will for Bryan.

Col. William M. Morrison of Illinois is at the City Hospital from the effects of the drug. Mrs. Walsmith was absolved from responsibility for the child's death at an inquest held at 9 o'clock by Deputy Corner Lloyd under the direction of Corner Walter J. Wait.

Mrs. Walsmith and Mrs. Smith have been friends since last July. Mrs. Smith is an inquest held at 9 o'clock by Deputy Corner Lloyd under the direction of Corner Walter J. Wait.

Mrs. Walsmith and Mrs. Smith have been friends since last July. Mrs. Smith is an individual to the colonel's apparently calm state of the colonel's apparently calm state

The two women resumed their conversation, Evans having gone out before the morphine was administered.

Thomas Cooper, a civil engineer rooming at the house, came in about 9 o'clock. He noticed that Jessie was breathing heavily.
He thought that she had merely taken fresh cold. He Joined in the conversation, but after Mrs. Walsmith left at 9:45 o'clock, his attention was again attracted to the child by her breathing. It was growing more and more labored. He called the child's mother. There was a rattiling in the child's throat and Mrs. Smith told Cooper that Mrs.
Walsmith had administered morphine.

"Then I knew the cause of the heavy breathing," testified Cooper at the inquest.
"I rushed over and tried to arouse her, but falled. Then I ran out for a doctor. I found Dr. L. L. C. Lemoyne at the corner and hurried him over to the house."

Dr. Lemoyne could do nothing for the child, and snatching it up hastened to the City Hospital, where everything possible was done to arouse it. Dr. Sutter notified the police and at 2:45 o'clock Mrs. Smith was arrested at her house by Detective Anderson and locked up at the Third District Police Station. She remained in the holdover until taken to the Coroner's office at 9 o'clock.

Three hours after the women were arrested word was received by the police from the City Hospital that the child died at 5:30 o'clock from morphine poisoning.

Mrs. Walsmith's statement at the inquest was about as follows:

"I gave the child the morphine. I bought cents worth at the drug store."

"How much do you consider a dose?"

"Well," I think one grain, not over two, should be given."

"How did you measure it?"

"Just by my eye."

"Don't you know that one grain will kill a grown person who is not used to the drug?"

"No, I did not know that one grain will kill a grown person who is not used to the drug?"

drug?"
"No, I did not know that. I don't remember who suggested giving the child the drug, but I administered it. I mixed it in water. I gave her the least little bit, hardly as much as would go on the end of a pen point. The child had not rested for a week and I thought it would help her."
"Had you any experience in administering inorphine?"

"I gave it to my sister once under a doctor's direction. He left it with me, divided into doses."

Mrs. Walsmith stated that she herself never used morphine.

Deputy Lloyd rendered a verdict that death was caused by morphine poisoning, accidentally administered, and the women were permitted to depart.

"There was absolutely no wrong intent in this case," said Coroner Wait, "and it is not even established that the child did not die from the ailment of which it was already ill."

The body of the child was given to the mother without the formality of an autopsy.

The story explanatory of this act of seeming neglect was told in several quarters by the doctor's friends yesterday. As the story was told the doctor lacked the heart to insult his pride and patriotism by hanging out the colors of the Orangemen.

The detectives left the saloon after the bartender's gun had been given to old man Cronin.

An hour later Sweeney appeared at the Four Courts carrying an overcoat that had been cut in a dozen places by a sharp knife. Sweeney said that Joe Hatton had cut the overcoat maliciously and that he had also assaulted him. The three detectives say that while they were in the saloon no one went near the closet in which the bartender's overcoat was hanging and that Sweeney probably cut it himself.

That Sweeney might not say the police were unfair, Chief Harrigan suspended the three detectives. Sweeney can make his complaint to the Board of Police Commissioners at their next meeting, when the detectives will also have a chance to tell why they were in Cronin's dive.

Eight years ago Sweeney, who was a fireman then, shot at a man named Moloney, but missed him and killed a man known as Morphine Ben. This took place at the head of Pool alley. Sweeney was tried for the killing, but was acquitted.

Since then the police say that his associations would have warranted his arrest on numerous occasions. Cronin has been his associate for some time.

DO NOT BE COERCED.

Advice Given to Voters From a Catholic Pulpit.

Catholic priests do not often talk politics from the pulpit, but Fr. Michael J. McCabe, rector of St. Michael's Church, did so Sunday. His congregation was not much sur-prised either. The reverend gentleman was bitter in his denunciation of coercion. "Do not," he said, "allow your votes to be taken from you by intimidation. When you do this you threaten the foundation of American liberty. When coercion forces men to the ballot box the end of the institutions of liberty is nearing. Coercion is tutions of liberty is nearing. Coercion is an insult to manhood, a weapon that would topple over the rights of every man. I ask you as men who love your country, who love liberty, to stand steadfast to the holy cause of freedom. Sacrifice jobs, sacrifice everything, but cling to the right that is sacredly dear to the heart of every American. Let the master of your votes be your own conscience, and when this is done the country is always safe."

BEAT HIS WIFE ABOUT POLITICS.

LOUIS S. PERRINE IS AN ENTHUS-IASTIC M'KINLEYITE.

HIS SPOUSE FAVORED BRYAN.

When the Police Arrived She Was Unconscious and He Says He'll

Slug Her Again. Louis S. Perrine beat his wife, because she would not agree with him on politics. Perrine is a goldbug. Saturday night Patrolman Murphy while passing a house at 1914 Marcus avenue was ing for help. The policeman paused and saw that the cries came from the lower floor of 1914 Marcus avenue. The front door was ajar.

"Help! help! For God's sake, help! He is killing me!" the voice said.
Patrolman Murphy drew his revolver and made a dash for the door. When he entered he saw a woman prostrated and unconscious on the floor. Blood was streaming from her nose, and several cuts on her head and face. Her clothing was sadly disarranged and torn and covered with blood.

Over her stood a man with uplifted hand, and swearing at her in a horrible manand swearing at her in a horrible manner.

Even after the officer entered he kicked the prostrate woman victously in the side.
He was promptly arrested and medical assistance was summoned for the woman.
Perrine was tried in the Second District Police Court Monday on the charge of assault and battery. His wife refused to appear against him. Patrolman Murphy testified to the assault.
Perrine took the stand and made a statement. He is about 35 years old and was neatly dressed. He said he was a railroad man. He made no denial of the charge.

"I admit I was drinking when I went home Saturday night," he said. "I am for McKinley and my wife is for Bryan. When I entered the house we got into an argument over politics. I made a statement and my wife disputed it. Then I got mad and I guess I must have struck her."

Judge Stevenson said that a man who had such an ungovernable temper was dangerous. He cautioned him to drink less in the future and to avoid politics in the family circle. Then he fined him its.

After Perrine paid his fine he approached Patrolman Murphy just outside the courtroom and gave him a bit of his mind.

"I will go home and repeat the performance as often as I like, and the first policeman that interferes will get his head shot off," said the amiable husband and enthusiastic McKinleyite."

In October, 1892, his indebtedness, direct and as indorser, was $121,000, and the Comptroller of the Treasury ordered a curtaliment. The bank was managed entirely by Moore, and the directors continued to let him have his own way and he increased his liability by $54,000 before the failure.

The suit is to determine whether the directors can be held financially responsible for their neglect of duty in permitting Moore to continue his looting operations. Some of the testimony adduced, showing Moore's methods, is sensational in its nature.

The Taxation Scare. removal of the capital to Sedalisincrease taxation.

Why?

1. The Constitution of Missouri fixes the rate of taxation and, if a $6,000,000 State house was built by Sedalia the taxpayers of Missouri would not be called upon to pay one cent more of taxes than they are paying this year, or last year.

2. The capital removal amendment prohibits the Legislature from expending a single cent towards building the new capital buildings at Sedalia. Read the amendment carefully and convince yourself. Then stick a pin in the last clause and show it to your neighbor.—Adv.
